

Askit Quizzes - Example Questions

Question	Answer
True or false a Carrick bend is a type of Irish country dance?	False it is a knot tied in a rope.
Which South African city is overlooked by Table Mountain?	Cape Town.
The addition of what would turn a Welsh Rarebit into a Buck Rarebit?	A Poached Egg
If a cockney was having a Bull & Cow with his Skin & Blister what would he be doing and with whom would he be doing it?	Having a row (argument, etc.) with his sister.
What are the team colours of West Ham Football club when playing at home?	Claret & Blue (accept maroon or red)
What is the minimum number of people required for a three legged race?	Four because with any less it couldn't be a 3 legged race)
Which famous song is the most sung song in the world?	Happy Birthday to you.
What is the name given to the American President's aircraft?	Airforce One.
Which publication, easily available to all, claims to have saved "thousands of lives" since it was first issued in 1931 when it cost 1d?	The Highway Code
Which is the only even prime number?	Two (2)
What activity was last done in December 1972 during the Apollo 17 mission? If it helps it was Eugene Cernan & Harrison Schmitt that did it.	Walk on the moon.
Which is the closest star to the earth?	The Sun.
What is the surname of the character played by Sigourney Weaver in the three 'Alien' films?	Ripley.
In which city did the "St. Valentine's Day Massacre" take place?	Chicago
Other than art and sculpture what is the connection between Leonardo, Raphael, Michaelangelo & Donatello?	They are the names of the four teenage mutant ninja turtles.
In what sort of athletic track event do none of those who are at the start reach the finishing line?	A relay race.
What is the name given to 1.15 M.P.H.?	A knot (a nautical mile)
What is the name of a block of glass which is used to bend a ray of light?	A prism.
What was the home town of the six farm labourers who were transported for trying to form a union in 1834?	Tolpuddle (as in the Tolpuddle martyrs.)
What type of road has a French name in England and a different French name in France?	Cul de sac in England and Sans issue in France.
Which countries name is spelt out by using the International vehicle registration letters of France, Italy, Holland, Austria, Norway & Germany?	Finland (F - I - NL - A - N - D).
What was the Royal House (family name) of Bonnie Prince Charlie?	Stuart
If a human has seven vertebrae in the neck, how many more does a giraffe have?	None, (giraffes also have seven but they are much longer than ours.)
If you ordered champignons from a menu what would you expect to get?	Mushrooms
To which North American Indian Tribe did Geronimo belong?	The Apache.
In which year did Iraq invade Kuwait?	1990 (on August 2) (Operation Desert Storm began early 1991)
How many signs of the Zodiac have four legs?	Six -(Aries, Taurus, Gemini, Leo, Sagittarius & Capricorn.)
Which American lawman had brothers called Virgil and Morgan?	Wyatt Earp
Which organisation has the logo of a lit candle wrapped in barbed wire?	Amnesty International
In which nursery rhyme did the dish run away with the spoon?	Hey Diddle Diddle (The Cat & the Fiddle)
In which American State are the resort cities of Las Vegas and Reno?	Nevada
Who was the son of King Uther Pendragon and Igraine?	King Arthur
Who wrote the classical play "The Crucible" based on the Salem Witch trials?	Arthur Miller
In the Film "Ice Cold in Alex" what was going to be "Ice Cold in Alex"? (Answer needs to be specific)	A glass of lager (Carlsberg) (depending on the audience you can sometimes accept beer)
Which organisation has the motto "Nation shall speak peace unto nation"?	The B.B.C.
For what is Somnambulism another name?	Sleepwalking
Which drink failed to sell in China because translated in local script it means "Bite The Wax Tadpole"?	Coca Cola.
Which is the only American state that has a name beginning with the letter D?	Delaware
Which racehorse died in 1995 and is buried at Aintree Race Course?	Red Rum
Which tournament has a trophy inscribed with the words "The Gentleman's Single Handed Championship of the World"?	Wimbledon Men's Singles.
Which singing group of the '60s & '70s was specially formed for a TV programme and attempted a comeback in 1997?	The Monkees.
Which 20th century playwright is alleged to have said "He's a little man, that's his trouble. Never trust a man with short legs - brains too near his bottom"?	Noel Coward
Superman - what was the name of the town in which Clarke Kent/Superman grew up in?	Smallville